

Undergraduate Progression Scholarships

Illinois State University offers renewable progression scholarships for qualifying International Year One students because we believe in recognizing and celebrating student success.

Eligibility

International Year One students progressing to degree status are eligible for a Progression Scholarship with the following cumulative GPA from their Pathway:

3.0 cumulative Pathway GPA = $3,000/year

3.5 cumulative Pathway GPA = $5,000/year

- No application is required.
- International Year One students who meet the GPA listed above will automatically receive this scholarship. GPA during IYO program determines scholarship amount received.
- Students must meet all progression requirements from their Pathway.

Renewal

- Progression scholarships are renewable for up to 3.5 additional years for 1-semester Pathway students, and for up to 3 years for 2- and 3-semester Pathway students.
- For renewal, students must have continuous enrollment with 12 hours or more during their undergraduate career and must maintain a cumulative 2.75 GPA.

Additional Information

- Progression Scholarships apply toward Illinois State University tuition, after the student progresses from International Year One.
- All current and future International Year One students, progressing at the end of the Spring 2020 term and all future terms, are eligible.

For more information, visit www.intostudy.com/illinoisstate/scholarships